Missing monuments

†498. SHRIMATI SUSHMA SWARAJ: Will the Minister of CULTURE be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact the Department of Archaeology has confirmed of missing of some monuments;

(b) if so, names of missing monuments alongwith details theeof; and

(c) the efforts being made for protection of monuments?

(d) THE MINISTER OF CULTURE (SHRIMATI ABMIKA SONI): (a) and (b) Due to a variety of factors like rapid urbanization, construction of multistoreyed residential and commercial buildings, implementation of development projects etc., thirty five protected monuments/sites are not traceable as per available information. The details (State-wise) are given in the Statement (See below)

(c) There are 3667 Centrally protected monuments/sites of national importance in the country. Archaeological Survey of India maintains and conserves these monuments/sites besides taking up environmental development and providing tourist amenities subject to the availability of resources. Archaeological Survey of India has also deployed watch and ward staff for their protection in addition to the deployment of private security guards, State Police and Home Guards, and CISF in selected cases. With a view to contain encroachments within the precincts of Centrally protected monuments, efforts have been made to provide fencing at Centrally protected monuments/sites, wherever necessary and feasible. This is an ongoing process.
